SOLEMN SERVICE FOR HOLY WEEK

Three Days Preceding Easter to Be Observed at St. Mary's Cathedrai.

PALMS ARE DISTRIBUTED

HUNDREDS ATTEND MASS WHEN BLESSING IS CONFERRED.

The solemn feast of Palm Sunday was fittingly celebrated at St. Mary's cathedral yesterday. The Rev. Father Kiely said the 8 o'clock mass and de livered the sermon. At 9 o'clock Right Rev. Bishop Scanlan celebrated the mass and preached an impressive sermon. At this mass the Knights of Columbus attended in a body. They numbered 125, and all received holy com munion. The music was by the St Cecilia chorus, with Loretto Boehler, soloist. Thomas L. Monahan, tenor of All Hallows college, sang "The Palms," by Faure. At the solemn high mass at 11 o'clock Right Rev. Bishop Scanlan blessed the palms. He was assisted by Rev. Father W. K. Ryan. The bishop preached the sermon. After the sermon the members of the congregation approached the altar to receive the palm and the bishop's blessing. Nearly 800 persons attended this service. The blessing and distribution of the palms lasted one hour.

sung in Latin by Father Collins, while gospel, and the reading was followed with much interest. The music by the cathedral choir was beautifully ren-dered. Feasts' Festival mass was sung. Mrs. Kathleen Fitzpatrick At-kins, soprano, and George Soffe, baritone, were the soloists. A particularly good feature was the singing of the "Palms" by Mrs. Atkins. For Holy Week.

At the vesper service in the evening Rev. Father Matthew Collins preached the sermon, which was an earnest, practical exhortation on the close of the Lenten season. Services of a character solemn and attractive will mark the observance of Holy, Week, which the observance of Holy Week, which began yesterday. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday mass will be said at the usual hour. Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock the office of Tenebrae will be sung. On Holy Thursday Bishop Scanlan will celebrate solemn pontifical high mass. He will be assisted by all the priests of the city. On this occasion the holy oils for the diocese will be blessed and will then be sent to the various parishes. The high mass will begin at 8 o'clock, and music of a high order will be sung by the cathedral choir. At the close of the high mass the bishop, priests and acolytes will form a procession, carrying the blessed sacrament to the side altar, and the adoration for the day will begin. In the evening the office of Tenebrae will be sung at 7 o'clock, followed by a sermon on the "Holy Eucharist."

Services on Good Friday.

On Good Friday mass of the presanctified will be said at 8 o'clock. Bishop Scanlan again will officiate. In the afternoon stations of the cross for the children of the parish and others who wish to attend will be said at o'clock, and again in the evening at with Tenebrae, accompanied by a sermon on the passion.

Saturday morning the services will begin at 7 o'clock. The Easter water will be blessed and will then be left for distribution for members of the congregation to carry to their homes. Music of an attractive character for Easter Sanday has been arranged for the ponti- al high mass in the cathedral, and at St. Patrick's church also.
